Notes for JOHN WHEELER:
John Wheeler was 21 years old in 1651, when he left England for the Colony of Maryland. John was a Roman Catholic, and it is probable that he left England to escape the persecution of Catholics following the end of the English Civil War when Oliver Cromwell beheaded the Catholic King Charles I in 1651.

John arrived in Maryland in January, 1652, on the ship "Thomas and John", under the command of Captain William Mitchell. John had traveled from Debtfordshire to London, where he boarded the ship. He may have been an indentured servant, since the ship contained about a dozen indentured servants who had contracted for a period of time (usually seven years) of labor in exchange for payment of their passage to the Colonies. John may have paid for his own passage, however, as no record exists of his having worked as an indenture in Maryland, and he purchased a land warrant for 100 acres from Walter Hall in June 1654, something an indenture could not have done. It is not known if John brought a wife with him, or married after his arrival, but he did have a wife, Mary (or perhaps Marie), and one son by 1654.

John was obviously a good farmer and business man, as his estate and his importance grew rapidly. Raising tobacco, cattle, and hogs, in 1658 he rented, for seven shillings per acre, 350 acres from Robert Cole on the northeast branch of the Nanjemoy River. He continued to acquire land to the degree that between 1654 and 1688 he had accumulated 3,293 acres of land in Charles County, Maryland, this at a time when the average small planter owned only about 100 acres. Because of his prosperity, he was appointed a Gentleman Justice of Charles County on May 30, 1685, by the Royal Governor. As a Justice, he served as one of the twelve judges of the county court.

John was also very active in the Charles County Militia. He was the Ensign (2nd Lieutenant) in Captain James Longworth's Company in February, 1661, participated in operations against hostile Indians in 1666, became Captain in June, 1676, and Major in June, 1679. On June 28, 1692, the Charles County Court ordered "Major John Wheeler being very much old and very much inabled through a wound he received in the Country's service...is therefore removed from all tax rolls...for the future."

John had a number of servants, but it is not possible to tell whether they were indentured or slaves. He probably had a combination of both. The only ones specifically known are Dorothy Hinks, age 10, Sam Gaskoyne, age 15, John Morton, age 20, Bridgett, age 18, and William Davis, age 13. These persons could have been indentured to John, or some could habe been the children of his other sevants or slaves. It was not uncommon for children to be indentured, as among the requirements of the person accepting an indenture contract was to feed, clothe, teach a trade, and educate the indenture, in exchange for the indenture's work for the specified period of time of the contract.

Obviously because he could not write, John used a distinctive mark instead of a signature on all documents he signed, up to and including his will, which was probated on January 8, 1694. His mark was .....

The Wheeler Family goes back to the early history of Maryland where John Wheeler obtained a patent 10 July 1663 for 4000 acres of land, known as "Wheeler's Choice", in Charles County. (1) An emigrant, he was of the Shropshire, England, Wheelers. (2) In 1676 he was commissioned Captain of Militia, and from 1680-1684 he was Major of the Infantry of Charles County, Province of Maryland. (3) For his services as Captain he was at one time granted 2000 lbs. of Tobacco. (4) In 1685 he was a Justice of Charles County (5) and also served as Commissioner of Port towns.

Major John Wheeler was born about 1631. In a deposition made 22 January 1652, he gave his age as 21 years. (6) In another deposition made 22 October 1691, he gave his age as 61 years. He made his will 11 November 1693, and it was proved 8 January 1694-1695 in Charles County, Maryland. In it he mentions property, "Planter's Delight", "Mayor's Choice", "Middleton's Lot", "Wheeler's Purchase", and "Wheeler's Delight." (7) At the August term of court of Charles County in 1694, Mary Wheeler is named as his widow. (8) In the Charles County land records (9) are found the following births, children of 1 JOHN WHEELER (1631-1694) of Charles County, Maryland.
2 John Wheeler, born 1654. Not mentioned in father's will.
3 James Wheeler, born 9 days before Christmas, 1656.
4 Mary Wheeler, born March 22, 1658.
5 Thomas Wheeler, born March 18, 1660.
6 Winnifred Wheeler, born March 1663. Married John Speake.
7 Ignatius Wheeler, born May 1665.
8 Francis Wheeler, born 1672. Not in list of births above. "Chuck Thornton"

  have in my database only the reference to Mary Causine being the wife of Major John Middleton. There is nothing there about a Mary Edelen. My sources for Mary Causine are (1) the LDS records; and (2) Newman, Harry Wright, A Branch of The Douglas Family with its Maryland and Virginia Connections, Doubleday & Co., Inc., Garden City, NY 1967. Both references apparently refer to Wheeler as her husband and the LDS source gives abt 1653, St.

Mary's County, as the marriage date and place. They apparently had five sons and two daughters. Not much help, but at least something to gnaw on! - Bye from Bill Howard -- 1653 Quail Hollow Ct. McLean, Virginia 22101-3234

THOMAS FINCH, ET. AL.

State of South Carolina
Spartanburgh District

In Equity

To the Honorable Chancellor of the said State

Humbly Complaining, Sheweth unto your Honor,

Your Oratrix Jane Finch that She is the only child and heir at Law of James Keen deceased, who departed this life on or about fourteenth day of February in the present year. Your Oratrix further shewes unto your Honor that her late father the said James Keen was possessed of a very large estate consisting of one or more valuable tracts of Land, from twenty five to thirty negroes, besides a large quantity of Cotton, Provision, and Stock of every description. Your Oratrix further shews that for several years last past Thomas Finch one of the Defendants, son to your Oratrix, unmindful of the duty he owed his parents, has been engaged in devises schemes to obtain possession of the property of his Grand Father, the said James Keen deceased, to the entire exclusion of his Mother your Oratrix from the inheritance: to this nefarious purpose devoting the whole of his faculties; and proceeding forward to the attainment of his object with a steadiness and perseverance worthy of a better cause. Your Oratrix further shews that her said late father was extremely advanced in age, being at the time of his death nearly or quite one hundred years old: and that for several years his mind and body have been in a gradual state of decay; so much so that at times he scarcely not recognize his nearest connexions, nor comprehend the relationships between them, every day growing weaker in body and more imbecile in mind, until exhausted nature gave up the contest and he sunk to the repose of the grave. A short time before the death of the said James Keen his mind greatly impaired as it was by extreme old age was almost wholly destroyed by the shock occasioned by the death of his wife. Your Oratrix shews that it was on this melancholy occasion that the said Thomas undertook to consummate those schemes which he had for years been engaged in maturing. Bending under the weight of years, the little reason age had left him wholly prostrated by domestic affliction, he was in no situation to resist, or comprehend the sinister designs of his said Grandson Thomas; who three or four days after the death of his wife procured the said James Keen to execute an instrument in the nature of a deed of trust, by which he conveyed to his said Grandson Thomas Finch, fifteen negroes: And with a view to cover his real designs the said Thomas directed to be inserted in the said deed of trust a stipulation on his part for the maintenance of your Oratrix and her husband John Finch (who hath since died) such maintenance to commence from the date of the deed. This stipulation contrary to the wishes and intentions of the said Thomas was inserted in the said deed of trust as a condition precedent to the enjoyment of the thereby property, but this was only discovered by him a short time previous to the execution of the deed and too late to have had another prepared without giving birth to suspicions which he thought it most prudent not to excite. Your Oratrix further shews that a day or two after the execution of the said deed the said Thomas in pursuance of his original determination to procure the property for himself unclogged with any invidious ~~restriction~~ precaution for the support of an Aged and infirm parent prevailed upon his said Grand Father to accompany him to the court house, where another deed was executed leaving out the obnoxious condition precedent, and making some other more trivial alterations, particularly with regard to a negro Boy to be given by the said Thomas to his brother William Finch, another son of your Orator and one of the defendants to this Bill, within a short time after the death of their said grand father should take place: and upon the execution of this last mentioned deed the first one was torn up and destroyed. Your Orator further shows that the deed first executed in its various provisions entitles your Orator and her husband to a comfortable support through life, absolutely and without any contingency whatever whereas the second deed only contains an injunction on the said Thomas to support his father & mother, with which injunction as was to be expected, the said Thomas has refused to comply: although he has with the utmost art endeavoured to make it appear to the world that he did so. Instead however of rendering your Orator and her husband that support which your Orator submits they were wholly entitled to by virtue of the deed first executed, notwithstanding its destruction, the said Thomas hath on various occasions shown a determination to harass and oppress your Orator in every manner in his power: sometimes denying your Orator the loan of a horse to go to the mill, and thereby forcing your Orator at the advanced age of sixty seven to fetch the meal from the Mill a distance of several miles, on her own shoulders, and at other times, more particularly when his father was on his death bed, supplying them with the bare necessaries of life in so scanty a manner, as hardly to satisfy the ordinary appetite of a single individual far less them enough for the support of a family and denying them the use of every thing necessary and proper to alleviate the wretchedness of poverty and the miseries of a sick bed. In this sound, unvarnished, tale of her injuries and wrongs your Orator hath nothing extenuated nor set down aught in malice: She hath been bereft of property, denied the means of support and her appeals to the justice of the said Defendant Thomas for redress utterly disregarded or treated with the most insulting contempt. Your Orator further shows that about the same time that the deeds above mentioned were executed, another deed was made by her said father to Philip Brewer another of the Defendants, conveying to him the said Philip nine negroes, for which as your Orator is given to understand not one cent has been paid nor stipulated to be paid. Your Orator does not know what inducement her said father had to the execution of this deed, but presumes that the whole transaction originated in that deplorable situation of mental imbecility to which he was unfortunately reduced. Copies of the said deeds to Thomas Finch & Philip Brewer are herewith filed as Exhibits marked A & B and prayed to be taken as part of this Bill.

Your Orator further shows that she hath understood and believes that other deeds were drawn up & executed at the instance & procurement of the said Thomas, covering the whole of the residue of the said James Kerr's property both real and personal and vesting it in the said Thomas & William Finch, that the said deeds are not recorded and that she hath been refused a sight of them, and that the said Thomas hath at various times since informed of your Orators intention to institute this suit declared that if there appeared any chance of your Orator recovering the property that he would put it out of the way, where it never could be come at intending thereby that he would send the property out of this State. But now so it is May it please your Honor that the said Thomas Finch combining and confederating together with the said William Finch and Philip Brewster and to and with divers other persons at present unknown to your Orator whose names when discovered your Orator prays may be herein inserted with proper and apt words to charge them as Defendants hereto, and contriving how to injure and oppress your Orator in the premises sometimes pretend that the said James Kerr deceased was not as old as he was generally taken and reputed to be, and that his mind memory, judgement and understanding remained unimpaired notwithstanding his great age, and that if at all impaired it was not so when he executed the said deeds of trust and conveyance, and that the said deed of trust first above mentioned was duly cancelled, revoked and annulled, by the execution of the second one, and also that the said Thomas hath always since the execution of the first deed supported your Orator and her Husband until the time of her said Husband's death in manner and form as stipulated in the first mentioned deed. Whereas your Orator charges the contrary thereof to be the truth: All of which doings and doings are contrary to equity and good conscience and tend to the manifest wrong and injury of your Orator in the premises. In tender consideration whereof and forasmuch as your Orator is remediless in the premises at and by the direct practice of the Common Law, and cannot have adequate relief save in a Court of Equity where matters of this and the like nature are properly cognizable and relievable. To the end therefore that the said Thomas Finch William Finch and Philip Brewster and the rest of the confederates when discovered may upon their several and respective corporal oaths full, true, direct and perfect answer make to all and singular the matters herein before stated and charged as fully and particularly as if the same were hereinafter repeated and they thereto distinctly interrogated and that not only to the best of their respective knowledge and remembrance, but also to the best of their respective information, hearsay & belief, and more especially that the said Thomas Finch may set forth a full and true account of all the negroes which have come into his possession from his said Grandfather's estate, their names and ages, and a full and true account of the Cotton, Provision & Stock of every description, and household & Kitchen furniture together with all and singular every species and description of property which may have come into his possession belonging to the said James Kerr deceased in his life time, distinctly minutely and particularly, together with the manner & time of his obtaining possession of the same and full and true copies of all deeds, Bills of Sale or other instruments in writing by which he claims the same and also what quantity of the provisions & Cotton have been sold and the prices and amount of money received for the same, and whether any debts due to the said James Kerr in his life time have been collected, and if so what sum did they amount to, and what sum or sums of money were found upon the person of the said James at the time of his death, or in his coffers & Chests since his death. And that the said Philip Brewster may fully and distinctly set forth the names and ages of the negroes conveyed to him by the said James Kerr deceased, and the consideration paid by him for the same, or that may remain due to the estate of the said James, and that the said Deed of Trust & Deeds of Conveyance, and Bills of Sale, and other instruments of writing affecting or relating to the same may be delivered up or cancelled, and that in case it should appear that the said instruments in writing or deeds, are valid then that the said Thomas Finch may be compelled to provide for the support and maintenance of your Orator in the manner and form as stipulated in the deed of trust first above mentioned, and that in the mean time the said Thomas may be enjoined by the order of this Honorable court from selling or disposing in any way of the said Negroes. Stock of every description. & other property which may have come into his possession from the estate of the said James Kerr deceased. or from taking or sending out of the State or the jurisdiction of this court. the said property or any part thereof. and that he may fully and truly account to your Orator for the same. in the court of the said deeds, Bills of Sale & other written instruments proving invalid. and that your Orator may have such other and further relief as to your Honors shall seem meet

May it please your Honors to grant unto your Orator a Writ of Subpoena to be directed to the said Thomas Finch. William Finch & Philip Brewton thereby commanding them at a day certain. and under a certain penalty therein to be inserted. personally to be and appear in this Honorable Court, then and there to answer the premises and to stand to and abide such order and decree therein as to Your Honors shall seem agreeable to equity and good conscience: And your Petitioner shall ever Pray &c

The Separate Answer of Philip Newton to the Bill of Complaint of Jane Finch.

This Defendant reserving to himself all benefit of Exception to Complainants Bill, for answer thereto says. He admits that James Keen died on the 5th day of August 1825 executed a Deed or Bill of Sale a copy of which is herewith Exhibited marked A, by which he conveyed to him Nine Negroes as mentioned in the Complainants Bill. He also admits that the only valuable consideration for those negroes is that stated in the Deed except $4 or $5 more which was paid by him for said Keen to Doct. Rodgers: But denies most positively that this transaction originated from a deplorable state of mental imbecility as stated by Compt. that on the contrary he considered said Keen fully adequate to the transaction of such business, or he would have scorned to receive the Deed; and he yet thinks he was so, or he would still scorn to keep it. He further shews upon Oath that the said James was not without inducements in making the disposition of these negroes as insinuated by Compt. that he had a strong & sufficient inducement which was to do justice even at the Expence of the Complainant his own & only child. The following short Statement of facts will fully develope the nature & object of this transaction. The deceased James Keen married Martha Autry daughter of Elizabeth Autry by whom he obtained the Original stock of Negroes which these negroes are descended. His wife Martha had no children; his object was after defraying the Expences he had been put to on account of his Property and after providing for the Support of his Mother in law Elizabeth Autry out of it, to secure the balance to some of his wife's Relations; with this view the said James & his wife proposed to this Defendant some time in March 1825 to take this property upon the conditions stated in the Deed above referred to; The said James said it had always been his intention that these negroes should not go to his heirs but should revert to his wife's relations, and that he had always told her so: They both appearing to wish that the Deft. who married the sister of the said Martha, should have them he consented to take them upon the terms mentioned in the Deed, & promised the ~~Deft~~ said James to have the Deed drawn as soon as he conveniently could; the matter however was not attended to immediately, and the Deed was not executed until August following; During this interval the said James twice or three times mentioned the subject to the Defendant requesting that the Deed should be prepared & Executed; and during all this time as well as at the time of Executing the same, he appeared not only competent to the business but seemed to have considered the matter well & to act with deliberation. The Defendant accordingly believes conscientiously that this act was the result of a long & settled determination on the part of the said James; but be that as it may, he well knows & can safely say that it was not induced or even forwarded in the slightest degree by fraud or circumvention on his part; and denying all fraud prays to be hence dismissed &c

The Separate answer of Rebecca Finch to the Bill of Revivor exhibited against her & others by Jane Finch Complainant

This Respondent saving and reserving to herself all manner of benefit of exception which may be had or taken to any more certainty or uncertainties in the said Bill of Complaint contained for answer thereto or to so much as this Respondent is advised it is material or necessary for her to make answer answereth and saith That she has heard & believes it to be true that the said Complainant did file her original Bill of Complaint in the honorable Court at or about the time in the said Bill stated against such parties as Defendants thereto as in the said Bill are mentioned thereby stating & praying to the effect in the said Bill of Revivor set forth so far as the same is therein set forth and that such proceedings have been had thereon as in the said Bill of Revivor set forth. This Defendant admits that the complainant Jane Finch is the only child & heir at Law of the said James Kerr deceased who died about the time mentioned in the said original Bill. This Defendant admits that the said William Finch died at or about the time stated in the said Bill of Revivor and that she is his Widow and that those persons named in the said Bill of Revivor as the Children of the said William Finch deceased are his children and with this Defendant are his heirs at Law. This Defendant has heard and believes it to be true that a short time previous to his death the said James Kerr did execute certain deeds one of which she understood was afterwards destroyed. This defendant was not present at the execution of the said deeds and does not know their contents with the exception of one which was made a few days before the death of the said James Kerr & which this Defendant has been informed conveyed to her said deceased Husband ninety acres of Land (a copy of which is herewith filed as an exhibit marked A) and excepting also the deed charged in the said Original Bill as having first been executed and since destroyed which said deed as this Defendant has been informed & believes entitled her said deceased husband to a negro boy ~~about eighteen~~ to twenty years old to be delivered to the said William some short time ~~subsequent~~ to the death of the said James Kerr. This Defendants knows it to be true that the said James Kerr was very aged in age and very infirm in body & mind but whether he was or was not legally competent to execute the said deeds this Defendant does not know. neither does this Defendant know what undue influence if any was exercised over the said James Kerr to procure the execution of the said deeds but this Defendant is compelled to admit that in her opinion the said James Kerr might easily have been persuaded to any thing by those in whom he placed confidence. This defendant saith that on the ~~next day after~~ the burial of Old Mrs Kerr she heard the said James Kerr say when speaking of his property "that he wished every grandson of his to have a negro and then there would remain sufficient to support Jane." and this expression was made in the presence of her said deceased husband and Thomas Finch. This defendant further saith that she has frequently heard the the said James Kerr say that his Grandson Thomas Finch had been teasing him for years to give him his property and upon one occasion when the said deceased husband of this Defendant was conversing with the said Thomas Finch respecting the unequal distribution of their deceased grand-father's property. the said Thomas in reply observed that "his grandfather was entirely governed by his mistress," meaning as this Defendant then and still thinks that the said James Keen had been persuaded or induced by his Mistress to dispose of his property as he had done. ~~This Defendant~~ ~~[illegible]~~ This Defendant has heard & believes that the deeds first above mentioned were executed at the house of the said Thomas Finch. This Defendant hopes that if in the investigation of this matter it should appear that the said James Keen was competent to execute the deeds referred to in the said Original Bill. that a specific performance of the first deed so far as it relates to the gift of a "Negro boy from sixteen to twenty years of age" worth at the least three hundred dollars" to be delivered by the said Thomas Finch to the said William Finch within three months after the death of the said James Keen will be decreed by this Honorable Court so far as it now can be performed. & that a Negro Boy of the age aforesaid may be delivered to the legal personal representative of the said William Finch deceased for the benefit of his heirs at Law. and that the said Thomas Finch may be ordered to account for the value of the hire of said Negro Boy. from the time he ought to have been delivered, and that the said tract of ninety acres may be conformed to the heirs at Law of the said William Finch. and this Defendant submits that the said suit and proceedings which became abated by the death of the said William Finch. may stand & be revived against her as one of the heirs at Law of the said William and be restored to the same plight and condition in which they were at the death of the said William. And this Defendant further answering saith that she hopes that in case the said deeds should be found valid. that this Court will make such order in the premises as shall prevent the necessity of any further suits either in Law or Equity. so far as the same may be consistent with the practice of this Court. All of which matters & things this defendant is ready to verify & prove when & where & how this Honorable Court may direct. & prays to be dismissed with her costs in this behalf sustained.

The separate answer of Thomas Finch one of the defendants to the Bill of Complaint of Jane Finch

The said defendant now and at all times saving and reserving to himself the right and benefit of exception to the manifold errors, inconsistencies, and untruths in the said Bill of Complaint contained, for answer thereunto or unto so much thereof as he is advised that it is material for him to make answer unto, answering says he admits that the complainant Jane Finch widow is the only child and heir at Law of the late James Keen deceased who died about the time stated in the Bill viz the 14th of February last; and that he had possession of a considerable Estate consisting of Lands Negroes and other personal Chattels.

This defendant further answering admits that on the eighteenth day of August in the year One thousand eight hundred and twenty four the said James Keen deceased made and executed a deed to this defendant for the fifteen negroes therein named, in trust for himself for life, and after his death to vest absolutely and unconditionally in this defendant. Containing also a stipulation to pay such a negro boy worth two hundred dollars to William Finch, in six months after the death of the said James Keen or to pay the said William two hundred dollars in money at the option of this defendant and also to furnish a comfortable support for the said Jane Finch the Compl.t and her husband John Finch during their lives provided they would remove to the residence of the ~~said~~ defendant. That the Exhibit marked A filed with the compl.t bill is a true copy of the said deed

This defendant further answering admits that on the 9th day of February 1826 the said James Keen dec.d "for and in consideration of the long and faithful services and assistance which he had received" from this defendant his grandson executed another deed conveying to this defendant absolutely unconditionally upon a tract of four hundred and fifty acres of Land therein described a copy of which is herewith filed and marked Exh. "A" as part of this Answer.

That on the same day the said James Keen executed another instrument of writing giving to this defendant "for and in consideration of the past services and assistance" which he had received from this defendant, all his personal property (not otherwise disposed of) consisting of horses, Cattle, hogs, a waggon and harness, plantation Tools household & kitchen furniture; also what notes, accounts and ready money he might have at his death, with a condition or stipulation that the same should remain in his the donors possession as long as he lived: a copy of which is filed as "Exhibit B"

That on the same day (viz 15th August 1825) last mentioned, the said James Keen also executed another deed in which, in consideration of the long and faithful service obedience and regard of his slaves James Sally and Selby and that the laws of this State did not permit the emancipation of slaves, he the said James Keen did grant bargain and give to this defendant the said negro slaves James Sally & Selby in trust for their own use behoof and benefit and this defendant was authorized after his decease as trustee to take the said negroes into his possession & care to and protect & secure them free exempt from any claim or claims of the heirs, executors, & administrators of the said James Keen or any other person, with other stipulations as therein more fully set forth a copy of which last deed is here with filed as "Exhibit C"

But this defendant utterly denies that for several years past or at any period previous to the execution of the said deeds he ever cherished any improper views in relation to the said property or ever engaged in any unfair schemes or practices to obtain it. He avers that the said deeds were made freely voluntarily or full and deliberate reflection for many years, and in pursuance of a purpose long entertained by the said James Keen and by him often expressed not only to this defendant but to other persons. This defendant while an infant and he is informed and believes only a few days after his birth (being one of twins of whom his mother was delivered) was taken by his grandfather the said James Keen and brought up in his house as an inmate or member of his family. And in this capacity lived with the said James Keen until his manhood, paying him all the obedience and rendering him all the service and assistance of a son the said James Keen during all this period having no white male person about his house or on his employment. That during this time the said James Keen this defendant believes formed the resolution of giving him the greater part of his property, since as he is informed frequently expressed it. This defendant never solicited him to do so, never made any such proposition to him, or held out any inducement to such a measure; on the contrary so far as encouraged it as occasionally when mentioned to him to suggest that some adequate provision should be made for his father & mother. This defendant further answering says that when the formal deeds above set forth were executed it was at the instance of the said James Keen and not at his own, and he denies utterly and positively the allegation in the Bill that the said James Keen at the time of the execution of the said deeds was in a state of mental incapacity or bodily exhaustion or that he was at all incompetent from any cause whatever to transact any kind of business; he avers that the said James Keen has always and did up to the day of his death superintend and manage his own concerns prudently & successfully, and that he fully understood the import of the deeds which were drawn according to his own instructions and deliberately executed. This defendant in conclusion repels with indignation the charge of fraud & imposition, and hopes this honble Court will have the charity without full and clear proof to the contrary, to suppose him incapable of cheating his mother out of her right of succession –

This defendant further answering admits that about the fifth day of August 1825 application was made to Mr. Thos. Boman at the instance of the said James Keen to draw a deed similar to that set forth for the sixteen negroes; that he was prevented from doing so, and it was intended then to get Mr Wm Freeman who was also prevented by business, and Mr. Boman then left application to R. H. Goldthwaite Esq. who drew a deed similar this defendant supposes to that referred in the bill of complt containing substantially the same provisions as that executed on the 18th of August but differently expressed in terms that the said James Keen was capable fixed with it and asks he signed it for fear of accidents but he immediately expressed his determination to destroy it and execute another which he could have drawn according to his own instructions. This defendant is not sufficiently versed in such matters to comprehend his objections then; the deed had gone and made some heirs; But he understood Mr Keen's objection to it became it required this defendant to take the said Jane Finch the husband to his house and support them &c; and on non compliance with this condition the said property was to vest in the heirs of the said James Keen; that in as much as the said Jane the husband might refuse to go, he, this defendant would be unable to perform the condition, and could not ~~therefore~~ take the estate. The said James Keen ~~therefore~~ supposed it was in their power to defeat the intention of the deed. He therefore chose to execute a new deed in which his views should be more clearly expressed, and the which property he made to vest unconditionally ~~on~~ the death of the donor, in this defendant, according to his avowed intention. Another objection was that this defendant was required in the first deed to deliver to William Finch a negro fellow from sixteen to twenty years of age within three months — whereas this defendant might not be able to procure such an one, and therefore in the second deed it was left to his own option to deliver the negro or pay the money. This defendant positively avers, that it was for these reasons and not at the instance or solicitation of this defendants that the said James Kean chose to cancel the first deed and execute another more conformable to his desire — He proposed the measure himself, applied to the attorney and gave the instructions himself, and explained his objections to the first deed —

This defendant further answering denies solemnly that he has refused to maintain and support his mother (her husband having died before the said James Kean) or for a single moment failed to do so; that before the death of his second father he had commenced building a dwelling for her, at his house, since finished; that he has repeatedly made applications to her to come and live with him, as a part of his family, she having no one to assist her, and being entirely alone since the death of her husband; that he has always been willing and ready to do all in his power to make her easy and comfortable; and that he will, if she would permit him, furnish her "with good and wholesome food, clothing, washing and lodging and a comfortable dwelling" according to the true intent and the terms of the defendants deed, and to his duty requires. But that she has always refused, and still does refuse, to come and live with him, prompted doubtless by others interested, who suppose, if she does not, that the estate of this defendant in the negroes will be defeated. But altho she thus refuses to come and live with him, she is now, and has been since the death of the said James Kean, living in the house where he died, on this defendants land, in his house, using his furniture, bedding, domestic utensils of every description, and supported by himself, or by provisions procured on the plantation.

This defendant denies having refused her a horse to go to mill; and says that in fact there has been no necessity for her going to mill. If she has been carried meal on her shoulders it has not come to the knowledge of this defendant that such an act was necessary: the negroes of the defendant living on the same place and being amply supplied.

This defendant denies having ever refused to show all his deeds to the complainant; on the contrary hearing that she wished to see them, he went to her, and proposed, as neither of them could read, to go to any one she chose, and have them read; a proposition which she did not accede to. And he denies in conclusion most positively that he has ever harrassed oppressed ill treated or rendered her uncomfortable and hopes that such a charge will not be lightly believed—

This defendant files with this answer an account of all the negroes in his possession derived from the said Jane Keen with their names and ages marked as "Exhibit D" There were found in possession of the deceased at his death Eighty three dollars 37½ cents; and a note not due of one hundred dollars besides small debts of insignificant value, which the defendant has not collected. And he has found the debts of the deceased as far as he could ascertain them to a small amount. In relation to the stock of Horses, Cattle Hogs, Crops of Cotton provisions, and other personal chattels the defendant is wholly unable to set out any exact inventory of them; he has never made one; and he submits whether the complainant has any right to call for an account of them until the amount of debts under which this defendant claims them: & the same should be set aside this defendant is ready and willing to account when, where, & in such manner as this Honble Court shall direct

This defendant denies all manner of combination conspiracy and fraud; and prays to be hence dismissed with his reasonable costs and charges in this behalf most wrongfully sustained

FOREWORD

This book began as a much smaller project to provide material for an article for The Carolina Herald (by the South Carolina Genealogical Society). However, it has grown to its present size--abstracts of Spartanburg County/District deeds in Books A through T. This amounts to 7917 pages from deed books. This number of pages doesn't include places where page numbers were duplicated or page numbers were omitted. In the latter case, it never appeared that a page had been torn from the book causing loss of information; someone had just skipped a number or two in the page numbering process. Abstracts from Books A and B were published in The Carolina Herald. Abstracts for most of Book C have also been published (by Mrs. Hazel A MacIvor) in the Carolina Genealogist (beginning in the Spring 1970 issue).

When this work was begun, there appeared to be no standard method of stating an abstract. The method here has been adopted from several places. The primary purpose of the abstract is to give all pertinent information in an abbreviated (understandable) form. The form used in this book is outlined below:
(1) the page numbers indicate the page on which the deed begins and the page on which the next deed begins, i.e. p. 4-5 means the deed begins on p. 4 and the next deed begins on p. 5;
(2) locations such as "(Union Dist)" after the date indicate the deed was written in another county. Similarily "(Union Dist)" in the witness oath or the dower renunciation indicate they were made outside Spartanburg Dist;
(3) the first date indicated is the date of the transaction, i.e. Dec. 5, 1812 indicates the property was sold on Dec. 5, 1812;
(4) the grantor's name and place of residence is indicated next, i.e. Samuel Bobo (Spartanburgh) indicates Samuel Bobo was the grantor and he was living in Spartanburgh Dist/Co at the time of the transaction; I have chosen to present the places of residence in the following manner: (a) Spartanburgh is used for Spartanburgh Co or Dist, (b) Spartanburgh, SC is used for the town (similarily for other towns--Columbia, SC indicates the town), (c) for other counties or districts in South Carolina, only the name of the district or county is given--Laurens Dist--and the "SC" is omitted, (d) for districts, counties, or cities outside South Carolina, the name of the county or city is followed by the state--Rutherford Co, NC;
(5) following the grantor and the word "to" is the grantee's name and place of residence; "(same)" indicates grantor and grantee were from the same county;
(6) the body of the abstract follows beginning with the amount paid and the number of acres (if given); semicolons have been used to separate phrases or parts of the description of the land; there has been no effort to use complete sentences in the description; this was done primarily to conserve space; the order in which I have tried to present the description is: (a) the amount paid (dollars or pounds), (b) the number of acres sold, (c) the creek or branch or river on which the land was located, (d) the bounding property owners, (e) the title chain beginning with the original grant (if given), (f) any additional information. "(ac omitted)" or "(money omitted)" imply the number of acres or amount of money were not indicated. Unfortunately, sometimes very little beside the purchase price and number of acres was given in the deed;
(7) the names of witnesses are given next; I didn't try to indicate which witness signed his name and which witness signed with "his mark"; there appeared to be very little variation in the "marks" from one person to the next--most were very similar to an "X".
(8) the name of the grantor is given next as he signed it--his signed name or name followed by "his mark"; occasionally a wife will make her mark even though she is mentioned nowhere in the body of the deed (and may not have given a dower renunciation); in these cases, "Elizabeth's mark" was typed since her last name was the same as her husband's.

INTRODUCTION

This volume of abstracts includes all deeds found in Deed Books U, V and W, for Spartanburg District. The deeds were recorded between 1827 and 1839, during which time Spartanburg was a District. This time period was well before Cherokee County was created from part of Spartanburg County. The earliest recorded deed was executed in 1796. A South Carolina Archives microfilm copy was the basis for the abstracts. Those deeds not completely readable on film were checked at the Registrar Mesne Conveyance in Spartanburg.

Each deed originated in Spartanburg District, unless stated otherwise. Courts and local officials are in Spartanburg District, unless explicitly stated. All places are in South Carolina, unless another state or county is named. Adjacent landowners and natural features are included; metes and bounds are not included.

In the index, the modern spelling is used for rivers, creeks, branches, shoals, etc. Personal names in the index retain literal spellings from the deeds. When searching for a surname, each spelling variant must be checked. Besides personal names and names of corporations, the major index entries are: Brigade Orders, Cemeteries, Creeks and Branches, Places, Rivers, Roads and Streets, Slaves.

In many deeds, a clerk was inconsistent in spelling a name. Some clerks wrote certain letters nearly the same, for example, L and S, I and J. Lower case letters were often alike within the same deed, for example, a, o, and e. The similarities account for many of the variations in spelling of personal names.

The individual named in a dower release was the wife of the grantor, unless another relationship is stated in the abstract.

This book of abstracts is a guide to the original books. Whenever possible, the deed books should be consulted, either on film, or at the Registrar Mesne Conveyance in Spartanburg.

Notes:
There may have been two Anastasia Wheelers running' around in Charles County, Maryland, in the early 1700s. There are a few reports out there that Anastasia, daughter of Richard Wheeler, married four Men: (1) James Kean, (2) Patrick Connelly in 1734, (3) Richard Johnson in 1747 and (4) Richard Crupper in 1753, then died in 1764 in Charles County, Maryland. James Keene, who died in Fairfax County, VA in 1761, had a daughter named Anastasia Keene who was born ca 1745. This James Keene was born ca 1695 to James Keene of Charles County, Maryland (who died in 1737) and Anastasia. This James Keene (b1695) would've been the right age to have been the James Keene who married Anastasia Wheeler ca 1725. The only problem is that this Anastasia was SUPPOSEDLY married to Patrick Connelly (and Richard Johnson and Richard Crupper) as well. There was indeed an Anastasia Wheeler who was married to Patrick Connelly, blacksmith, in 1733 when land transactions refer to the couple. In October of 1733, Anastasia Connelly "released her dower" to allow the sale of some of her and her husband, Patrick Connelly's, land to Ignatius Wheeler (brother of Richard). There were other sales in 1733 referring to them as a couple. Two parcels sold, "Wheeler's Delight, " and another tract were land which was conveyed from Thomas Wheeler to his son JOHN WHEELER. This same land was then conveyed from John Wheeler to PATRICK CONNELLY. This same land was next transferred to RICHARD JOHNSON (this Anastasia Wheeler Connelly Johnson's third husband). Why would John Wheeler convey land to the husbands of his niece, Anastasia? It would make more sense if Anastasia were the DAUGHTER of JOHN WHEELER. Adding fuel to this argument is the fact that this Anastasia was already married to Patrick Connelly in 1733 (the reports which refer to her having 4 marriages say she married Patrick Connelly in 1734). Patrick Connelly (Sr.) died in FEB of 1734, giving everything to his wife, Anastasia Connelly. RICHARD WHEELER died in APRIL of 1734 (just two months later) giving his daughter, Anastasia KEAN, 1/2 of his personal property. He mentions a Patrick Connelly (obviously JR.) who has the right to seize the property of Kendrick Bane (Richard's daughter) if Ebsworth Bane (Kendrick's ex-husband?) "molests" the land. So the Connellys were obviously close to these Wheelers, but it seems this Anastasia who was married to Patrick Connelly couldn't possibly have been married to James Kean. It must've been Richard's daughter, Anastasia Kean, who was married to James Keene (unless bigomy were legal back then). There is only a two month window for her to have married James Kean (wasn't there a mourning period back then?) and this seems VERY unlikely because the Anastasia Wheeler who married James Keene was obviously still alive in 1745 (and still married to James Keene) when they had a daughter named Anastasia Keen. It must've been this other Anastasia Wheeler, daughter of John (?) Wheeler, who married firstly, Patrick Connelly sometime before 1733, then Richard Johnson (who was conveyed Patrick Connelly's land, which was formerly John Wheeler's land, formerly Thomas Wheeler's land), then married Richard Crupper in 1753 and died in 1764. Richard Wheeler's daughter, Anastasia, who married James Keene ca 1725, obviously stayed married to James Keene and died sometime between 1745 (when their daughter, Anastasia Keene was born) and 1761 when James Keene died not mentioning his wife's name in his will. This is the only possible solution that makes any sense to me or anyone else I've run this by. If we could find land records conveying land from Richard Wheeler to Anastasia Keene or James Keene, this would clinch it. And, in my mind, if John Wheeler and his wife, Margaret, had a daughter named Anastasia (which seems reasonable since Richard Wheeler had a daughter named Anastasia), then that would prove it as well. Any help you could give with this would be very appreciated. Thanks.Peter Grant grant@wilmington.net

Notes

- NOTES: John was born in England and transported to America in 1659 on the ship 'Richard'. On 29 April 1659, Richard Maior (Major) was granted 350 acres in New Kent County, Virginia for transporting seven persons to America. The land was on the north side of York River. The persons transported were John Countyoke, John Wheeler, John Drummond, Mary Rigby, Mary Butler, Thomas Goldsmith, and Marry Morris. It was customary to give a ship's captain 50 acres for each new immigrant he brought to America. New Kent County was formed in 1654 from York and parts of James City counties. The county is located between Richmond and Williamsburg, Virginia.

  Wheeler - Drummond Connection
  There is no proof that John Wheeler is a direct ancestor in the line presented in this study; however, he was probably our ancestor. The fact that John Drummond was on the same ship would lend credence to the belief that the Drummond name originated from the marriage of a male descendant of John Wheeler and a female descendant of John Drummond. Drummond appears as a Christian name in every generation of Wheelers contained in this family history. Since it is an unusual Christian name, there is a good probability that Drummond was the maiden name of a Wheeler's wife. There are records on a Drummond Wheeler and his descendants who were born in Virginia, and lived in Tennessee and Mississippi.

John Wheeler and John Drummond were probably Cavaliers from England. A Cavalier was one who had become discouraged with the British Government and was awaiting the restoration of Charles II to the British throne. Charles II lost control over disputes between the Catholics and Anglicans.

have in my database only the reference to Mary Causine being the wife of Major John Middleton. There is nothing there about a Mary Edelen. My sources for Mary Causine are (1) the LDS records; and (2) Newman, Harry Wright, A Branch of The Douglas Family with its Maryland and Virginia Connections, Doubleday & Co., Inc., Garden City, NY 1967. Both references apparently refer to Wheeler as her husband and the LDS source gives abt 1653, St. Mary's Co., as the marriage date and place. They apparently had five sons and two daughters.
